Lifted Up

“Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet as a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person’s reward. And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not lose their reward.”

(Matthew 10:40-42)

Some of you will remember an old Coke commercial with Mean Joe Greene from the Pittsburgh Steelers (if you don’t remember the commercial, you can catch it on YouTube). Mean Joe is limping down a tunnel from the game and a kid holding a Coke says, “I think you’re the greatest.” And then offers him his Coke. At first Joe won’t take it, but he finally does and drinks the whole thing while the boy turns away, “See you around.” Then Mean Joe says, “Hey kid. Catch.” And throws the kid his jersey.

I read an article the other day that made the connection between these words of Jesus from the Gospel of Matthew and that commercial and it made me smile. The author went on to tell a story about a time when he offered Billy Graham a cold glass of water right after Rev. Graham had been speaking and how it was a blessing to be able offer refreshment to this great man of God.

And there are times when we should take those words of Jesus literally: offering hospitality to missionaries as they visit our congregation, for example. Greeting and helping guests in worship is a way to “offer a cup of cold water.” But it can be as simple as an encouraging word, an offer to help, prayers put into action.

Those who are in leadership here at Grace Church, our staff and our servant leaders, put in a lot of time and effort to be faithful disciples of God and witnesses to the congregation and community. And when Jesus says to offer a cup of water to one who is my disciple, how much more can we do but to lift one another up – all of us, this tremendous staff, the leaders and those who serve in the church, and all who follow Jesus – with prayer and with words of encouragement.

The Apostle Paul tells us to “Carry each other’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.” (Galatians 6:2) Be an encourager, a helper, a pray-er... Lift one another up, and know the blessing to serve God as we serve one another.

In Christ’s Love,
Pastor Bill

“What a Choir!”
That’s what I thought as we sang together to the glory of God during Bev’s last service, completing more than 33 years of ministry at Grace, and many prior years before completing a career here. Bev has been a personal friend and teacher to me since I joined this marvelous choir around 17 years ago. We all have choices, and I’m glad to have sung with Bev’s choir as long as possible. Bev’s Grace choir has a lot of talent, a lot of perseverance, and just enough patience. They can blend and sight-read music without complaining, enjoying the moment. Bev’s personality permeates the group, and I will try to keep up. They are a joy to be around, you ought to try it!

“What a Choir!”
That’s what I was thinking as I directed the Grace Choir during my first official task, wearing a bath robe and leading a raucous crew in a rousing rendition of “We Are the Choir”. We had a lot of fun “honoring” Bev during her retirement party, but what did I get myself into? All those personalities! We don’t separate the Sopranos from the Altos, the Tenors from the Basses, for no good reason. What a fun bunch, you ought to try it!

“What a Worshipping Choir!”

The Grace Choir will lead and enhance our 11 o'clock worship services during Lent, through Palm Sunday, Good Friday, Easter and beyond. Ah, Sunday morning worship. You ought to try it!

“So, How Do I Know?”

The Agape Class is studying Rob Renfroe’s book The Trouble with the Truth. This is an excellent study of how to balance truth and grace in our lives. In learning about the Cultural worldview vs the Spiritual worldview, one concept has really stood out to me. It is, “A lie unchallenged often becomes accepted as reality”.

Think about that If you don’t know that a statement is a lie AND it is repeated enough, then you may begin to believe it. Given today’s information super highways, opinions are stated and spread and spread and spread. Of course, we know that “if it’s on the internet it must be true” ... right? NOT!! Is something true just because a majority of people think so? Or because a highly educated or well-known person declares it as truth? Of course not.

As members of a moral society we all need to practice discernment. AS Christians within that society, how do we tell truth from opinion? We must do our own research. That includes searching out reliable sources. Also, enlisting the help of reference librarians and professionals in that area of study. However, when it comes to cultural “norms” vs moral, ethical and spiritual truths, discernment becomes more challenging.

God’s truth is the same today as it was yesterday and as it will be tomorrow! Our reliable source is the Bible. At any stage of our Christian life, it is advisable to also consult with other Christians who have proven themselves to be knowledgeable and trustworthy. From St. Paul to Dietrich Bonhoeffer to Billy Graham to our own small group leader and Pastor; we need to surround ourselves with Christian advisors. Then, with our heads and hearts brimming with information, we sit quietly before our God in prayer.

All of what is written here is succinctly stated in Romans 12:2: “Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve (ie: discern) what God’s will is – His good, pleasing and perfect will (ie: the TRUTH).”

The end of February saw the start of the Lenten season and March, coming in like a lion or a lamb, I’m not entirely sure, is a time of reflection to prepare our hearts for the miraculous event we celebrate on Easter Sunday. While the excitement of Christmas and the celebration of Jesus’ birth is something children easily grab ahold of, the somberness of Lent is sometimes difficult for little ones to comprehend. As a way to help families reflect on Jesus this season in a tangible way, I have set up “The Joy Journey” in Wesley Parlor beginning March 1st, the first Sunday of Lent. The Joy Journey is a series of tasks inside Easter Eggs that can be completed together and take little time but can have a big impact. Children can choose an egg each Sunday of Lent with a task to complete for that week. Choose a new egg the following week, making sure to pick a different color egg for a different task. Families are welcome to post pictures of themselves on the Embrace Grace Facebook page to share their experience. From Hebrews 12:2, “We must never stop looking to Jesus. He is the leader of our faith, and he is the one who makes our faith complete. He suffered death on a cross. But he accepted the shame of the cross as if it were nothing because of the joy he could see waiting for him. And now he is sitting at the right side of God’s throne.”

Also, in March I will be hosting an Escape Church Event, where families will solve a series of puzzles and use clues to, well, escape church! This event requires an RSVP as groups will need to sign up for time slots. The limit for a group will be six people and each round will take approximately one hour. If you have any questions or would like to sign up for this event, please call the church office.

Our Preschool Valentine Dinner was a great success with a nice size group in attendance. Everyone seemed to enjoy being able to visit with other preschool families and eating some great food. The children sang some songs for everyone and were able to show off our room and some of their projects and accomplishments. A BIG THANK YOU to the preschool board members that helped organize the food and clean up after the dinner. We have some long-time members that have the dinner down to a science which allowed Jessica & I to visit with families and enjoy the evening. We also appreciate Tristan for setting up and taking down all those tables and chairs!

Our current afternoon class has registered for Kindergarten and are excited about seeing where they will go to school next year. The 3-year-old class is completing their color books and we will be celebrating "rainbow day" with songs, treats and games.

Will March come in like a lion or a lamb? Will the leprechaun visit our classroom and leave us some gold? As we celebrate Dr. Seuss's birthday, keep our eyes open for "visitors" and keep track of the weather, we look forward to our crocuses coming up to tell us that SPRING is officially here!

We still have openings for the 2020-2021 schoolyear so if you know of anyone looking for preschool for their child, registration forms are available in the church office or by calling 723-8011. We feel fortunate every day to experience the joys of working with these children!

There will no longer be one service on the fifth Sunday, so that means no more SOC offering for the time being. Care with Grace would like to do a list of items that we could use if you wanted to donate instead:

Great Value 100% Apple Juice 96 oz, Great Value Kleenex-plain, Plastic spoons and forks, Gallon and quart Ziplock bags, Paper towels
Please start thinking about summer, I would love to have members of the church to come in and teach the children different skills or just read them a story. Whatever your talent is we would love to use it for the good of the children. Please call 723-9440 ext 14 and talk with Irene.

Thank you for all of your support.

Flock Talk

“Those who are older should speak, for wisdom comes age.”

Job 32:7

We have a treasure in our church! They are sometimes referred to as “The Silent Generation”. These are the people who were born between 1925 and 1945. On any given Sunday we have the opportunity for delightful conversation with this age group. They have seen a great deal in their lifetimes and they have both stories and advice!

The Silent Generation is characterized by a strong work ethic. They raised families during times of economic uncertainty. It was necessary to develop an inner drive to work hard and get where they needed to be in a short period. They are known for their discipline, for upholding values, for their gratitude and for their appreciation toward the simplicities in life. They have a strong sense of determination and the ability to overcome hardships.

We sometimes find ourselves in a hurry, rushing past the older generation with fond familiarity, but no extra time to talk. Throughout Scripture, God teaches us how to respect and care for people who are aging. He teaches us how to listen and how to lift one another up.

The next time you cross the threshold of Grace Church, take a loving look around and see the beauty of this generation. And, if you are one of them and reading this article, know that you are loved!

With great respect,

Sue Toombs, Lay Leader

Women's Bible study begins Tuesday, March 3rd (7:00p.m.) and Wednesday, March 4th (8:45a.m. and 10:45a.m.) in Wesley Parlor. Study books cost $7.00. Please pay the first day of class. If you are paying in cash, please have the exact amount. Checks should be made payable to Grace U.M.C., with "Bible study book" on the memo line. You will need to bring your Bibles and a pen or pencil to the classes. If you have any questions, please contact Renee Magnuson by March 1st 726-7890 or radmagnuson@gmail.com

The women of Grace Church have again been asked to serve one of the community Lenten Soup and Pie Luncheons at First UMC. Our date to serve will be Thursday, March 19th.

Anyone interested in helping on that day, or on Tuesday, March 17th (when we will make the soup), is invited to join us. We will need pies furnished as well. Signup sheets for workers and pies will be available beginning on March 1st in Wesley Parlor and Higginbotham Hall. Watch for further details. If you are willing to help make the soup, please call Marge Smith, 723-2551 or Linda Knapp, 726-1199. You may also call the church office for more information or to sign up for any part of this fun event to help serve our community in worshipping this Lenten season.

Sunday, March 8th, is Girl Scout Sunday!

All Daisy, Brownie, Junior, Cadette, Senior, Ambassador, and Adult Girl Scouts are encouraged to wear pins and/or uniforms to worship so that we may recognize how the scouting programs help girls grow in their faith. The troop that meets here at Grace Church will be using that Sunday to thank us for the facility use. The scouts and their families will be serving the congregation a FREE soup and pie luncheon following the 11:00 worship service. Please plan to join in fellowship with the scouts and their families in Higginbotham Hall after worship.

New Acolyte Class to Begin

Pastor Bill will begin the next session of acolyte training classes on Tuesday, March 10, from approximately 3:45-5:00. We will begin in Wesley Parlor with a snack and a short video, "Chuck Knows Church." The classes continue for at least 3 more Tuesdays, March 17th, 24th, 31st, and April 7th if needed. Instruction will include learning about church symbols, the acolyte's code of conduct, church history, and about the sacraments of baptism and communion. We will practice lighting and extinguishing the altar candles, which are symbols of Christ's light. New acolytes will be fitted for robes. At the last meeting a pizza party will be enjoyed, and all "veteran" acolytes will be invited to attend to get acquainted with the newest members. Installation of the new class will be after Easter.

If you are in grade 3 or above and would like to become an acolyte, please register by calling the church office at 723-9440 or Linda Knapp at 726-1199. If you have children, grandchildren, or even neighbors that might be interested, please have them contact the church as well.

This is an exciting opportunity to serve during our worship at Grace Church.

The Outreach team will be hosting a rummage sale at Grace on April 18th from 8 am until 2 pm to raise funds for Red Bird Mission Trip. Clear out some space and donate your usable items. Kids clothes are welcome, but please no adult clothes. You can drop off items in Higginbotham Hall on Friday April 17th from 4 pm - 6 pm. If you need help or you would like to volunteer, please contact Chuck Keeperts @ 814-688-8534.

The Grace Church Food Pantry is in need of peanut butter, jelly or jam, canned veggies (corn, green beans, carrots) at this time. Thank you to all who contribute to the Grace Church Food Pantry!

"Relieve Stress Naturally"

Tuesday, March 17th at 6:45 pm

Higginbotham Hall

What relieves stress? Several natural remedies are tried and true, and considered effective for emotional well-being. If you would like to hear the reasons why some work and some don't, this talk is for you. It is important to know how our bodies react to the right choices we make.

The simplicity of deep breathing can help to lower our hearts rate and our blood pressure. Learning how to decompress correctly after a long day can feel like a miracle to a mind and body that needs our attention. It really is as easy as it sounds.

Friends are welcome! Be prepared to sleep better after this talk!

Presented by Sue Toombs.

Dear Friends, what a shocking, delightful surprise we received in the mail yesterday! Thank you so much for your incredible Christmas offering donation!! You are such a blessing to us! May you be blessed!
