What Really Matters To You?

I was thinking about what is most important in my life – the people, of course – my family, my church family, my friends. What else matters? What else am I thankful for? I saw a post online that was “300 Things to Be Grateful for (2022)” which intrigued me for a couple reasons. First, this wasn’t a Christian website, in fact this was a site that promotes “minimalist lifestyle” but is also a “self-help” and “personal development” website. Second, I wondered how someone outside of the church (where, of COURSE we’re supposed to be thankful people) might think about gratitude.

The article spends some time talking about the benefits of gratitude: it can make you happier, gratitude changes you and your brain, it improves your sleep, increases your energy levels, may even extend your life! (article and study links abound...)

The author breaks the 300 “things to be grateful for” down into a bunch of subcategories. Some are exactly what you’d expect: personal things, health things, financial things, relationship things, little things... But there were some interesting categories too: food gratitude and wardrobe gratitude were categories I had to investigate. Another was “animals to appreciate” – like bees because they keep our food crops pollinated or elephants because they can dig water holes which allow other animals to get water to drink. Under the “everything else” category, I smiled when I read “thankful for GPS” and nodded my head when I read, “thankful for honesty” and “thankful for making right choices.” Again, this is not a Christian website, but this does indicate some of the very real value of thankfulness.

And in a very real way, this is practicing what I would call “intentional gratitude.” Paul says in 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.

Give thanks in all circumstances. I’ve said before, and we all know this (but it’s hard to live it) – Paul doesn’t say give thanks for all circumstances. Sometimes things happen that are just awful, soul-crushing, and life altering.

And yet.

Give thanks in all circumstances. Thanks for what? Bees and elephants? My wardrobe? I mean, sure, if that helps. But that’s not what Paul is talking about. We as Christ followers give thanks because God is with us – even when life is a landslide of uncertainty and pain. God is with us. “If God is for us, who can be against us?” Paul asks (Romans 8:31b).

What “give thanks in all circumstances” looks like for me is David’s words in Psalm 13:

*How long, Lord? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
How long must I wrestle with my thoughts and day after day have sorrow in my heart?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?
Look on me and answer, Lord my God.
Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death,*

*and my enemy will say, "I have overcome him,"
and my foes will rejoice when I fall.
But I trust in your unfailing love;
my heart rejoices in your salvation.
I will sing the Lord's praise, for he has been good to me.*

David is angry and frustrated (with God!) at the beginning of this Psalm. Look, God knows that sometimes life kicks our feet out from under us – and God know that sometimes we get mad at God for not doing something about it. And yet... "I trust in your unfailing love" – I have never doubted God's love for me and for all of us – even when I can't explain the bad things that happen to me and all of us sometimes.

And so "I will sing the Lord's praise, for he has been good to me."

What really matters to you? What are you truly thankful for?

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Bill

Happy Holidays!

Though you may find the greeting trite, 'tis the season to be happy. We have so many holidays to celebrate in the next two months. Besides the Big One, we have many reasons to celebrate for two full months.

Here are a few examples. We have at least three reasons for celebration just on the first Sunday in November alone. First let's "fall back" our clocks. No big deal, but I'm looking forward to regaining that hour of sleep I lost back in the spring. Sunday November 6th is also our opportunity to celebrate communion with our church family. If that's not enough, it's All Saints Sunday, a time when we can celebrate the lives of our loved ones that have recently gone to be with our Lord. Our choir is planning to sing "Oh may all who come behind us find us faithful". November 13 is Remembrance Sunday, followed by our choir retreat. You know we won't be going backward, but planning ahead for some very important celebrations in December. Moving on, November 20 is our Thanksgiving Celebration Sunday, prior to Thanksgiving Day on November 24. I expect to have a five-page list of things I'm thankful for by then.

Get the idea? Those are just the first 3 Sundays in November! After Thanksgiving we jump right in to our first Sunday in Advent with our Pastor's series about the Awkward Family Christmas. We will celebrate our Advent communion service on December 4th. Mark your calendars for our Christmas Concert on December 11 at 4pm, followed by the best social reception after the music. Our 4th Sunday Advent Celebration is on December 18 with even more of your favorite Happy Holidays music. We'll celebrate Christmas Eve on Saturday with different services at 7pm and 11 pm. Stay tuned for further details. Christmas day follows immediately after Christmas Eve this year and will be another Sunday celebration. Our upcoming New Year's Day falls on a Sunday and may I suggest we approach the day as our "Second Thanksgiving" rounding out our two-month season of Happy Holidays.

Regardless of what's going on in your busy life in the next two months, spend some time in worship. Then you can enjoy two months full of Happy Holidays!

“BEING OF THE SAME MIND”

As promised, I am continuing to share sections from Church Unity: Through Paul’s Eyes, a booklet based on lectures by N. T. Wright. He is a New Testament scholar, Pauline theologian and Anglican priest.

Grace Church, as a congregation of individuals, is navigating the waters of disaffiliation. As a former collegiate oarswoman, I can relate to that nautical metaphor! When there are eight rowers with the desire to move the boat quickly, there is no room for individuality. They must move as one unit or the forward momentum will be impeded. These individuals, with differing personalities, strengths and weaknesses, must become of one mind and move with each other to achieve success.

So it is with Grace Church. To move forward with our mission of “To know Christ and to make Him known”, we need to be in harmony.

N. T. Wright asks, “What does it mean to live as an extended family across cultures and traditions? How are we to live together, unified, while being obviously different humans?” In Philippians, “Paul implores his readers to ‘be of the same mind’, meaning that they should all think in the way of the Messiah ... This is important because he expects them to really be living together, entangled in each other’s lives, which will inevitably lead to some difficulties which need working through. And they can’t be worked through if everyone is operating from wildly different mental starting points. The starting point must be the Messiah Jesus and his work in their lives, so that issues can be wisely and consistently resolved.

Thus, as always, what the community needs and what Paul pray for them is grace – the grace of the Messiah Jesus. ... Paul envisages the community as a single whole, indwelt together by the one spirit yet retaining their own individual vocations and personalities. He includes the command ... that they are to be unified, even in their difference.

This navigation is possible because the basis of the relationship is Messiah Love. ... Love today has regularly been collapsed into mere sentiment or passing whim. It regains its proper stature for Paul here because love respects and celebrates that which is not oneself. It can reach out to understand things that remain opaque to a hurried, or pragmatic, or self-centered glance.”

While my heart is burdened by the possibility of conflict in our future, I trust that GOD is with us. As a family together in Christ, I pray that we can learn to live with and respect our differences.

Philippians 1:27: ‘Whatever happens, conduct yourself in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ’.

Warmly, Cindy Price

Greetings! My name is Amanda Slattery, and I have taken over as the Director of Children and Family Ministries here at Grace! I feel blessed to be able to begin this new adventure. For those that may not know, I have been teaching in Warren County for 17 years. I began as a special education teacher, and this year decided to switch to the role of regular education, elementary teacher.

Due to COVID, our church has seen a decline in the number of children attending Sunday School. It is my hope to reach out to those families that have not been attending in person, and invite their children to begin attending Sunday School once more. The children are the future of our church, and I want to make them feel welcomed each time they walk into the building.

As the new Director of Children and Families Ministry, I plan to host monthly events and/or hold events at various places within our community, or not too far of a drive from our community. I also plan to email weekly devotionals to the families of preschool and elementary children. I am currently planning an event for November, so remember to save the date—Saturday, November 19th from 12pm-4pm. More details will be coming soon.

Blessings to All,
Amanda Slattery

Our “community helper” unit in October was a big success. We would like to thank the Warren Police Department and Warren Fire Department for visiting us at school and showing us their vehicles and teaching us what to do in an emergency. We were blessed with two beautiful sunny days and the kids were beyond excited to see a police car and fire engine and all the tools our community heroes use!

This November we will be talking about fall and how our animal friends prepare for winter. The three-year-old class will bring in their teddy bears and we will teach them how to hibernate. The afternoon class will be busy with cool art projects, a pumpkin science experiment and fun language arts games with Mrs. Lynds.

Of course, we will also learn about Thanksgiving, play in our teepee and sail on the Mayflower. The month will conclude with our Thanksgiving feast where we will share thanks for all of our blessings.

There aren't enough words to express our appreciation for all the support you have given our program over the years. We want to wish everyone a wonderful November and Happy Thanksgiving!

Trish Gentilman & Jen Lynds

October had a lot of the children getting more interested in the dress-up costumes, participating in dramatic play, and doing more crafts. We're thankful for some no school days with the school-aged children in November. We would also like to give our thanks to the church for always being able to help the daycare run smoothly whether it is through yard maintenance, office assistance while I learn, or even just advice.

Dear Friends in Christ,
Thank you so much for your generous donation to The Sharing Place (August communion). Hopefully we will be able to have in house meals soon, but in the meantime, everyone is so grateful for the meals.
Thank you again for your continued support.

*Thankful
Blessed*

Dear Friends,
Allow us to express our sincere gratitude for your warm response and welcome upon our return to Grace – the reunions as well as the warm new faces was a blessing! Your continued love, prayers, and support have been vital to our ministry in Jamaica. Hoping to see you again soon.
In love,
Dave & Shauna Goode

Thanks from Pastor Bill – My family and I are both honored and humbled by the many cards and well wishes and gifts we received for Pastor Appreciation. I am particularly thankful for the ways so many have expressed their love and support for Lori and Rachel and Elie. We love how Grace Church has become home for us. Thank you again for all the ways you support and love us!

Thank You

Flock Talk

"Do to others as you would have them do to you."

Luke 6:31

After all is said and done . . . If only it was that easy! As most of us know, Grace Church has been engaging in some wide ranging conversations these past few months. All isn't said and all isn't done. But, we have found that something very interesting is happening. We are talking like never before. We are engaging in conversations that take us deep into theology and we're looking at the word "love" more intricately because of the impact it is having in our lives.

What is the best way to react and to reach out and to respond? I'm learning as I go and I am scanning the horizon to see and hear how we love our neighbor. What I am finding is that Grace Church has become a family in which we need to learn to live and relate together. We practice patience and we bear the responsibility of ensuring that all are treated with compassion and respect.

When the apostle Paul was in Corinth he rebuked the people for their strife among themselves. We are God's fellow workers in God's field and in God's building. Jesus receives us the way we are, but He is also cleansing us and sanctifying us. We are all in the process of sanctification and we owe it to each other to be kind and considerate. If He were to step into our church, it would be a joyous moment to hear Him remark, "Well done, Grace Church". Let's work toward that!

Here for you,

The Grace Church Food Pantry is in need of spaghetti, spaghetti sauce, Knorr sides, instant mashed potatoes, pork & beans, canned fruit, canned vegetables, instant oatmeal at this time. Thank you to all who contribute!

Items for the December Newsletter need to be delivered to Mary in the office mary@graceumcwarren.com by Friday, November 18.
Thank you.

Free Yoga Day!

Christian Yoga has become tremendously popular! I would like to thank the community and our church by offering two free classes on Saturday, November 12th! The classes are completely different and will appeal to those who have been attending and to anyone who wants to give it a try.

Extreme Yoga 10:00 - 11:15am

This class is for anyone who wants to explore their athletic boundaries with a class that stretches the limits a little. If you have been attending classes, you will enjoy the challenge!

Healing Yoga 11:45 - 1:00pm

This class will appeal to anyone who would like to experience deep stretching and acquire an understanding of how PTSD affects the body. This is truly a restorative, stress reducing class.

Please feel free to attend one or both! The classes require only a mat and are in Higginbotham Hall.

Grace Church Finance Report

Give Thanks

For over 400 years our nation has given thanks in the month of November. Do you ever find that it's hard to be thankful over all of the noise? Social media, politics, the news, foreign wars, the economy ... It seems every time I turn around, there's a new "issue of the day".

As we head into this month of thanks, we should all try to drown out the noise and focus on the things in life for which we are thankful. I'm thankful for my family, good health, and a good Penn State football season (with the exception of our loss to Michigan). I'm also thankful for our church family and the ministries we support.

Please keep Grace Church in your prayers this season as we make important decisions about the future so that we can reach the decision that keeps our church a family. Your giving is appreciated and so important to support our church. THANK YOU!

COVERED BY GRACE

Soon, the clotheslines will appear outside the front of the church, and we, the congregation of Grace, will supply hats, mittens, gloves, and scarves to be hung on those clotheslines as a ministry to the Warren community. Hats, mittens, and gloves are especially needed, but scarves are used also. Covered by Grace runs from November through February 2020. Please keep those clothing items coming throughout the winter.

GRACE CHURCH, PLEASE COME PRAY

On Saturday, November 5th, the sanctuary will be open from 9:00a.m. until 6:00p.m. for members of the Grace Church family to spend time in prayer. Let's confess our sins before God, humbly asking Him to grant each one of us the wisdom we need to discern the direction He desires for our congregation. You may desire to pray for a few minutes or for a longer period. Silent prayer is recommended because the sanctuary's acoustics make it easy to hear even the quietest conversation on the opposite side of the room. Thank you for respecting other individuals' prayers by leaving the building before gathering to visit with others.

It's Operation Christmas Child time! Shoeboxes, instructions, and information on what/how to pack are now available in Wesley Parlor. Boxes are due back on Sunday, November 13th.

THANKSGIVING DINNER Grace church will be hosting Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday, November 24th at noon. Take outs will be available. Please RSVP to the church office at 723-9440 no later than November 21st.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED We will need pies, workers, and lots of prayers. This will be a food prep, cook, serve, and clean up event. Sign-up sheets will be in Wesley Parlor soon. Your service will be greatly appreciated!

Hanging of the Greens – Week of November 20, 2022

The annual Hanging of the Greens for this Advent season will be on Sunday, November 20th. We will meet after 11:00 church service to begin the task. Hopefully the bulk of the decorating will be done in a couple of hours. (If you find it more convenient to decorate on a weekday, please make that information available to Suzette, 814-723-3964, or leave a message at the Church office, 814-723-9440.) ALL decorations should be in place before Sunday, the 27th which is the first Sunday of Advent. Sign-up sheets will be available on November 6 and 13. Help is needed in all areas, especially some tall, younger ladder-climbers. All decorations are provided, packed, and distributed according to the area in which they will be used.

Annual Choir Concert Reception

On December 11, donations of cookies are needed for the reception following the concert and workers are needed to help set up, serve, and clean up. Signup sheets will be available on November 27 and December 4 at all 3 services.

Grace Church Ladies Christmas tureen luncheon

All women of Grace Church are invited to attend a Christmas tureen luncheon on Thursday, December 15th at noon in Higginbotham Hall sponsored by the Ruth M. Smith Center Circle.

Please bring a tureen to share. Dessert and beverages will be provided. There is no cost for this luncheon, but we would like reservations to be made by Dec. 10th to Suzette at 814-723-3964, Linda at 814-726-1199, or to the church office at 814-723-9440.
