Deadline*

I'm typing this on the afternoon of the day the newsletter articles are due to be turned in to the office... which seems to be my habit. I'm almost never early. At least it's not "I had it in before midnight so it's technically still the day..." which, sadly, I've done... And I have missed the deadline more than once. Mary is gracious, but it's wrong of me to rely on her grace. I have told her that if articles aren't in on time, no matter from whom (including me) that she should publish the newsletter without said articles. But Mary is gracious and, so far, hasn't taken me up on the offer.

But it's wrong of me to take advantage of her grace and I am pledging not to do so any more.

I don't know about anybody else, but I'm a deadline pusher. What I mean is – when I have a deadline, I do my best to honor it. But... I'll usually be scrambling to complete whatever task it is right before the deadline. **

This got me thinking about my faith and how I'm living out my faith. There are no deadlines in Christ following (well, there's one... literally). So what drives me to know God deeper, to pray more earnestly, to live more generously?

In 2 Corinthians 6:1-2, Paul writes:

As God's co-workers we urge you not to receive God's grace in vain.

For he says,

*"In the time of my favor I heard you,
and in the day of salvation I helped you."*

I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation.

Now. That's the deadline, right? There really is no "later" in our walk of faith. There is today, right now. Every moment of every day is an opportunity to live out this life of faith: to love, to forgive, to repent. Now is the day of salvation. This, right now, is the deadline for living a sold-out, Holy Spirit fueled, grace embracing life for God. We've taken advantage of God's patient grace for far too long.

Now is the time to be the Church, to be the Body of Christ. To live what we believe.

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Bill

* By the way, the term "deadline" has a particularly gruesome origin...

 In High School I typed my senior research paper – on a manual typewriter for you kids out there – the night before it was due – all eleven pages with footnotes and bibliography... actually... I did the research that afternoon as well...

Request and sing your favorite hymns in June and July!

H GTA? AG? DBD is one of my favorites. JTTW? (We'll wait for Christmas for that one.) Throughout June and July, we'd like your input and requests for your favorite hymns. Request 'em, then come sing 'em. We'll try to sing as many of your favorites as possible in June and July.

Simply request your favorite hymn on the gold card and add a reason why you like it with your name if you'd like. Or submit online on the gold card. Just remember to tune in and sing in June and July.

Dear Grace Choir,

It is with grateful hearts that we say THANK YOU! Thank you for the people you are that share your talents, love of one another, and that expresses God's love so beautifully every Sunday! Thank you for loving Mom so much and for the ways you embraced and encouraged her through her illness. Your calls, cards and visits meant the world to her. She loved you all! Thank you for the beautiful music you provided for her service, what a tribute to her.

A decorative graphic with the words "Thank You!" written in a purple, cursive font. Several musical notes of various sizes are scattered around the text, some appearing to be part of the letters.

With love & gratitude,
The Bunce Family

We Welcome...

Spring: sunshine brings energy; blooms bring color (and allergies!); extended daylight allows us to be outdoors longer; birds have returned and are singing before dawn!

*These are the days that the Lord has made,
Let us rejoice and be GLAD!*

Pentecost (June 5): we celebrate the presentation of the Holy Spirit to humankind. The Apostles received Him as a wind. Breath or wind is a symbol of the Spirit of God. Last month, I wrote about YHWH or YaHWeH (inhale/exhale). From our lowest valleys to the heights of joy, our every breath expresses that God's spirit is with us.

*Breathe on me, Breath of God,
Fill me with life anew,
That I may love what thou dost love,
And do what thou wouldst do.*

Try to explain wind to a child. It's interesting! While wind is the movement of air, how we perceive it is how we can explain it. It can be the silent, gentlest touch of a breeze on your bare shoulder. It is seen as it moves tree branches and leaves. We can hear it as it enables hanging chimes to ring out their melody. The winds of change can ROAR into our lives as it moves around buildings in forceful gusts or ahead of torrents of rain. I remember when the tornado that took down Carter Lumber arrived and it DID sound like a freight train!

And, that is how the Holy Spirit works: gently, during times of quiet desperation; boldly, to be "heard" over the clamor of our lives or in those AH-HA moments when we wonder ... How? Why? ... was I able to do what I did, or say what I said or be what I was?

"I am with you, child." Is the reply.

Prepare to welcome and recognize the Holy Spirit's presence in your life.

Our prayers were answered and the weather was wonderful so we could have our last day of school celebration outside! We are so thankful we made it through the school year without any significant shutdowns. The kids were such troopers and we are so proud of them for making the best of a difficult two years. We look forward to seeing our morning children again next year and still have openings for some more friends in the afternoon (4-year-old) class. Please continue to let others know that registration forms can be picked up in the church office all summer long. We would like to thank our Grace Church family for its continued support. Because of your generosity, our outreach to children & families in the community will continue, and we are so very grateful!

It's time to enjoy the summer! Care with Grace will be getting ready shortly for our amazing summer plans to begin. We will be utilizing the city pool with our older children, while the younger children enjoy playing with sprinklers. We also have some exciting trips planned over the next few months to the Erie Zoo, the Russell roller rink, and Chapman state park to name a few. There will be crafts specially made with love to celebrate our dads this month too!

Flock Talk

“Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.”

Proverbs 22:6

When we remember the beautiful old hymn, “I Need Thee Every Hour”, it gives us a strong sense of how we lean into God. And, how we dearly need our earthly fathers. No matter how young or how old we are, we need the love and protection of our fathers. Even if they are gone, we find great reassurance as we shelter in their memory.

This Father’s Day will bring a range of emotions to many of us. It’s a day to honor and love and respect those men who have raised us, including those men who have been instrumentally attached to our lives. There are six areas in the Bible that describe the character of these men:

- 1.) He walks closely with the Lord daily.
- 2.) He is humble, and not proud.
- 3.) He is generous with his time for his family.
- 4.) He is generous with forgiveness and understanding.
- 5.) He is focused on the future of his children.
- 6.) He is a reflection of Jesus with his compassion.

I was so very blessed to have a father who chose to be this man for his family. May we all celebrate with the love of “Our Father Who Art in Heaven” and thank these men in our lives. May we feel forever blessed to know how it feels to love and be loved.

With gratitude,
Sue Toombs, Lay Leader

Dear Grace Members,

We want to thank those of you who sent Dottie a birthday card recently! We appreciate your kindness and thoughtfulness. Dottie is doing fairly well at the Rouse and lights up especially when her great granddaughter visits her! Thanks again.

Sincerely, Jim & Anne

Liturgy Invitation!

We are inviting anyone interested in being a liturgist to consider this wonderful opportunity. Every Sunday at the 11:00 worship service, the liturgist leads the congregation with the Call to Worship and the Opening Prayer.

All readings and prayers are supplied to you, making this a well-coordinated and easy effort. Sundays are rotated and a schedule is available for your own choosing. You can decide your own dates and times. If you would like to know more, please contact Sue Toombs at church or 814-730-9996.

Extravagant Generosity

Extravagant - (adj.) 1. spending much more than is necessary or wise; 2. exceeding the bounds of reason; 3. going beyond what is deserved or justifiable

Generosity - (noun) 1. liberality in giving; 2. freedom from meanness or smallness of mind or character; 3. largeness or fullness

By themselves the words extravagant and generosity have substantial meaning; placing them together intensifies their significance: liberally giving beyond the bounds of reason; or freedom from the smallness of mind or character to spend much more than is necessary or wise.

Pastor Bill recently spoke about Extravagant Generosity, one of the core values of Grace Church. He reminded us: "Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will reap generously". He spoke of having one of three mindsets: bag, basket, or barn mentality. This core value guides us to have a barn mentality, to give joyfully of our time, talent, and treasure.

Thank you, Grace Church for all of your generosity. Let's continue to have Extravagant Generosity in our lives and support the core values of Grace Church.

ACOLYTE NEWS

Recently 6 new acolytes were installed to begin service at Grace Church. They were presented acolyte cross pendants and participation certificates during the 11:00 a.m. service on May 1. These students completed a 4-week training class with Pastor Bill and helpers, where they learned about the worship service, symbols in the church, the sacraments, what it means to be an acolyte, and practiced lighting the worship candles. A “get-acquainted” pizza party included current acolytes and was held at the conclusion of the last class with 10 present. Those completing the classes they began before covid are DJ Anderson and Katelyn Jurkowski. Those completing this current series of classes are Eddie Anderson, Bobbi Gafner, Emma Lyle, and Riley Lyle. For the first few times of serving, each will work with a “veteran” acolyte. We now have a total of 13 active members. Congratulations to the new class and thank you to everyone for serving in this important part of worship.

Ruth M. Smith Center Circle News

On May 10, an organizational meeting was held in an effort to resume meetings of the Ruth M. Smith Center Circle. 12 women of the church met for a time of “Tea and Talk.” Following a welcome and introductions given by Suzette Berdine, a token of appreciation was presented to Marge Smith for her many years of serving the Circle (at least 50). Pat Slattery led the devotions. Light refreshments were served and those attending brought a favorite teacup, some gave the history of their cups. It was decided by the group to meet 3 times a year and our next meeting will be on September 20 for lunch (time and place TBD nearer the date). Janice Lyle, Board of Directors member of the Ruth M. Smith Center, will tell us of her work at the Smith Center and the relationship of the Center presently with the National Division of UMW. Future plans may include a visit with the residents of the Smith Home, and perhaps a Christmas tureen dinner. The Circle welcomes any women of the Church, and further information may be obtained by calling Suzette at 814-730-3396 or Linda at 814-726-1199.

Interested in a trip to RED BIRD MISSION? This area of Kentucky is one of the most impoverished regions in the U.S., and there are many opportunities to be involved in Community Improvement projects.... from construction to help in the local thrift and craft stores to home & grounds maintenance projects....and more! People can go as individuals, as families, or in groups. Folks are welcomed to come during spring, summer, and fall...usually for a week, they but can stay longer if desired. Even RV's can be accommodated there! It is a great opportunity for kids and teens to be involved as well. Over the years, Grace Church has sent teams there perhaps 15 times. It is a life-changing experience! For more information, please contact Keith Price at 723-3953 or rkeithprice@hotmail.com.
