Resurrection

I was talking someone the other day and he said, “You know, I love Christmas and all. The church is always beautiful, and I love the Christmas songs. But Easter is my favorite, hands down. This is what it’s really all about.”

I couldn’t agree more.

This week – this terrible, wonderful week – when Jesus was arrested, interrogated, tortured, humiliated, and finally executed in the most brutal forms of killing that history has devised – this week is our week of celebration. We celebrate the lengths to which God was willing to go to release us from sin and death. It’s why we call Holy Friday, “Good Friday.” In fact, every time we receive communion, we are celebrating Jesus’ death.

For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

(1 Corinthians 11:23-26)

God’s plan of salvation that washed away our sins. No more would sacrifices need to be offered as a temporary, inadequate ritual of washing away our sins, Jesus died so that everything we have done or will do that breaks our relationship with God can and will be forgiven. “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.” (1 John 1:9)

I celebrate that truth every day. I am forgiven. I don’t deserve it, I didn’t earn it, I can’t always live up to it, but I’m forgiven.

And then comes Easter. Not only does God demonstrate His complete victory over sin with Jesus’ death on the cross, but death is defeated.

God promised through the prophet Hosea:

“I will deliver this people from the power of the grave;

I will redeem them from death.

Where, O death, are your plagues?

Where, O grave, is your destruction?”

(Hosea 13:14)

God delivered on that promise in the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed— in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: “Death has been swallowed up in victory.”

“Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?”

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

(1 Corinthians 15:51-57)

This is “what it’s really all about.” God’s promise to us that if we will put our trust in Jesus Christ, sin has no power over our lives, and death has no power over our eternity.

In Christ’s Love,
Pastor Bill

Choir Notes

It seems in some ways little has changed since last month. We’ve established a functional worship participation schedule with the first Sunday of the month led by the Madrigals, the second Sunday by the Women, and the third Sunday led by the Men of the choir. We precede those Sundays with the 2 Wednesday rehearsals in the choir loft. We haven't met in the Choir rehearsal room in over a year, and have adjusted as well as possible, warming up in the choir loft prior to the 11:00 service.

But we made a wonderful change on February 28 and opened our services again. We have taken all the necessary precautions and have remained safe and physically healthy, to the best of my knowledge. Come, check it out.

Great News! We are opening up the choir loft (extended), for any and all that want to participate in the choir for Palm Sunday, Good Friday, and Easter! We will continue to sing as safely as possible, with masks and distanced. We'll meet at 7 p.m. on the prior Wednesdays to rehearse. YOU are welcome to join us! So, grab your favorite mask, your favorite voice, and let's sing together again!

Come, now is the time to worship!

CARE FOR THE CONGREGATION

I love this position at GUMC! The real joy is becoming better acquainted with the people of Grace Church. Three months after I started, CoVID reared its ugly head and all in person visitation ceased. Hospital and Nursing Home visits have been non-existent. But, I have been meeting regularly with some folks; either in their homes, at their front doors or via phone calls.

I am grateful for all the Prayer Warriors who lift up the needs on the Prayer Chain and the emailed Prayer List. We have seen resolution of many of these requests ... often in surprising ways. That is how GOD works! AMEN!

But, there is a heaviness in my heart. It is not one particular person, idea or situation; rather, it is the division that I feel is festering in our community and at both the national and international levels. It only takes a spark to start a fire. And I feel that there are hundreds of sparks igniting in our world. They seem to travel quietly. Often without being noticed until they appear as a flame. Feelings are being hurt; people are feeling misunderstood and uncared for; minorities bear the wrath of discrimination ... and on and on.

Do you feel this, also? My only answer is Prayer. Turn your heart towards praying for those in leadership at all levels: Grace Church, Warren County, Pennsylvania, USA and nations worldwide.

PRAY for those whom you disagree with.

PRAY for God's guidance for the decision makers.

PRAY for understanding and cooperation.

It is through Prayer that hearts can be changed. That is the miracle of Prayer.

Act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with your GOD.

On Palm Sunday, the Children's Ministry had a very successful Easter Egg Hunt at Hem-View Farm. There were nearly twenty-five kids and their families who braved the chilly rain to attend. That's not even counting the youth from the church who came early to help hide the eggs and spread a little joy. They showed skills gained from egg hunting days past in the way they hid the eggs for the littler ones.

We started out with a story in the barn on bales of hay and heard a telling of the crucifixion and resurrection from The Jesus Storybook Bible. The story was followed by the littlest ones getting a bit of a head start finding eggs. Seeing the next group of kids race across the yard when we gave the go-ahead was a sight to see; their delight contagious. When all the eggs were found, we enjoyed cookies thanks to Vicki Morrison, and homemade hot chocolate from Melinda's kitchen. As the rain began to pick up, the kids made their way down to the barn to see the cows and the pet the cats. The kids took home a craft that was a wreath showing Jesus' resurrection and a necklace.

We may have gotten a little wet from the rain, but we made the best of the day and had a great time! It was wonderful to see everybody come together to plan and execute this event for the kids. A big thank you to all who were involved, especially Meghan and Mary who helped stuff eggs with three little boys running around and Melinda for lending her property. I encourage everyone to attend the Children's ministry events and be a part of the fun!

It's hard to believe our school year is quickly coming to an end! We are thankful we have been able to meet under these unprecedented circumstances for the majority of the school year and pray we all stay healthy until our last day in May!

It is great to see spring weather and we hope to go for some walks and play outside. In April we will prepare for and celebrate Easter and Earth Day, review our shapes, colors, numbers, and letters, and our afternoon class will continue to work hard at learning skills they will need for kindergarten.

We still have openings in both classes for the 2021-2022 preschool year. Please contact the church office if you know of someone in need of a registration form!

We pray for the health and safety of our preschoolers & families, Grace Church and our community. Wear your mask and wash those hands!

Happy Easter!

Trish Gentilman

We have added 3 children in March and hope to add a few more for fall. We have 2 more children starting in the infant room in Aug and Sept and another to start in Jan. We are done with the Penny Wars and we made over $400 and the Hippo class won. We are working on our Star's 2 level and are making progress.

Irene Garris

"God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble."

Psalm 46:1

One of my horses has PTSD. She is nearly twenty and we have learned to live with it. A 1,000 lb. animal with a lack of coping skills can make for some harrowing adventures. But there is a redeeming quality in all of God's choices and how He will use His creation to teach us.

Two things that both animals and people need in order to reduce a fight or flight tendency are safety and consistency. In our world today, health experts are determining that we may see a rise in post trauma stress disorders due to everything from isolation to economic worries. How do we serve others in a way that encourages them to feel safe and secure?

Being able to resume in person worship has been a form of rescue for many people who were struggling, some behind the scenes. There is courage in numbers and a sense of community that offers more than fellowship. Church, whether it is in person or online, offers "help".

We love the Easter story and feel at peace when it never veers from the original and glorious message of redemption. This year may have a special impact on some people. It will offer safety, reassurance and the dependability of our Savior.

Many people will experience post traumatic “growth” by hearing the message this year. That type of healing comes not only on Sunday, but every time you and I are patient and kind and willing to listen to someone’s fears. We can be part of someone’s recovery. And each of us can be a recipient of someone’s help. God intended for us to care for one another and now is our time.

Lovingly,
Sue Toombs, Lay Leader
