Resurrection

What do you think of when you see the word “resurrection”? Are there images that flash in your mind like an empty tomb, an empty cross, something else? Maybe you think of the Easter story in one of the Gospels? Maybe something someone said, or a story, or a movie? (There’s a great moment in Zeffirelli’s Jesus of Nazareth where a character named Zerach, a member of the Sanhedrin, steps into the empty tomb and says, “Now it begins. It all begins.”)

Resurrection is the central story of our faith. We often make a big deal of Christmas (and, yes, I know, if Jesus hadn’t been born there would be no “rest of the story”) but, as a culture, we don’t make as much ado about Easter.

But you’ll notice that in the Church, Easter is clearly the bigger deal. We have four weeks of Advent leading up to Christmas, but we have six weeks of Lent leading up to Easter – beginning with a special day (Ash Wednesday) and ending with Holy Week – Palm Sunday, through Maundy Thursday and Good Friday (with services and observances) with the triumphal statement of “He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!” on Easter Sunday.

If you read the end of the Gospels you will see something very curious. Jesus had traveled, taught, cast out demons, healed, even raised the dead for three years, much of that time with these twelve guys who witnessed all this in amazement (“Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him?” Mark 4:41). At least three times he told these guys that he would be killed and he explicitly told them he would rise from the dead (Mark 9:9-10). Yet, when Jesus is crucified, they scatter and spend the three days from his death to resurrection not in anticipation of his resurrection but in hiding. The women go to the tomb not expecting to see the stone rolled away, but wondering who will help them roll it away so they can finish the rituals of burying Jesus’ body.

But the tomb was empty.

And we know the story so well that maybe doesn’t shock us (should I have put “spoiler alert” there?). The curious thing to me is what changes. Read ahead to the book of Acts and you will see people completely devoted to God, living out their faith in everything they are and do. You see Saul who persecuted the early Church meet the resurrected Jesus on the road to Damascus and completely change everything – from persecutor to evangelist. You’ll see Peter and John preaching and healing and suddenly prison holds no terror for them. What changed?

The tomb was empty.

The resurrection is the keystone of our faith. Chuck Swindoll once said (I’m paraphrasing, I don’t have the quote in front of me), “To believe that Jesus was born takes no faith. Everyone is born. To believe that Jesus was born of a virgin. That takes faith. And to believe that Jesus died takes no faith. Everyone dies. But to believe that he was raised from the dead. That takes faith.” The New Testament contains the testimonies of so many who encountered the resurrected Christ and that changed everything. The Apostles in the book of Acts go from fear to boldness, from hiding to preaching in the square, from powerless to empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Because the tomb was empty.

And that’s our story. We are the people of the resurrection. The people of the empty tomb. The people of the resurrected Christ. And we celebrate because that makes all the difference.

In Christ’s Love,
Pastor Bill

Happy Spring – finally... except it doesn’t quite feel like it yet... maybe soon. Life in the music world is moving along. Grace Choir is working on Holy Week music and hopes you will come to the Tenebrae Service on Good Friday at 7:00 pm. It is a service of music, candles, and shadows. You can't say it's wonderful. It's not. It's sad and depressing, and you leave the church in silence and darkness.

It helps make Easter Sunday more glorious and triumphant. Please come and celebrate the victory!!

The Choir and Bells will sing and ring at 11:00, the children will sing at 9:30, and flowers are everywhere – so be sure and take your allergy pills!

We are so glad to see Don S. back from Florida, and Nancy J. all recovered. We still pray for Lori B., Renee M., Vicki A., and Carol K. Feel better, y'all!

The music this month was enhanced by solos by Trish G. and Alice P. Thank you, ladies; they were beautiful.

The baby contest was won as a tie with Beth C. and Trish G. having 15 names correct out of 24. This proved to be harder than we thought. The names are out there, and you are invited to stop and get a chuckle or two. Thanks to Karen C. and her art work to set it up.

Soon there will be another display as the children will have their baby (or toddler) pictures up. Stop by the choir hall for sheer entertainment.

So, we're on our way toward Easter Sunday. See you in church and Happy Easter to all!!

Beverly Petersen

From the Director of Congregational Care

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid." Psalm 27:1

My grandchildren delighted to fool me on April 1st. They came up with such shocking news that I was afraid was true. Only when their seriousness turned to giggles and they'd yell, "April Fool" did I feel relieved and join in with their glee.

Do you ever wish that someone would yell, "Fool's Day" when you hear some alarming news? The bad news was only a joke and everything was really okay. You aren't sick. You haven't lost your job. Your spouse still loves you. Your children are safe. Your house isn't on fire. You aren't being audited. You did make the team.

The fact is that to some of us these things are happening. Our lives are impacted by various challenges and changes and we desperately need help.

As God's children we know where our help comes from. The Psalmist wrote, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble." Aren't we thankful that He is always with us and we don't have to work through our troubles alone?

We can be God's instruments of Grace-filled help to those going through difficult times. Let's pray that our hearts would be made willing and our eyes ever open to see the needs and respond to His leading. It would be foolish not to.

As we move daily toward Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter, may the passion of the Christ transform our lives as we reach out to others with the love and life of Jesus Christ.

*Grace, mercy and peace,
Karen D. Gray*

It's hard to believe our school year is coming to an end! Now that spring is here, we hope to go for some walks and play outside. In April we celebrate "Month of the Young Child" and will have an art project on display in the Wetmore Gallery of the Warren Public Library. Both classes will take a trip to the library to hear stories read by Miss Susan before checking out the art gallery and all the projects made by the preschools, daycares and kindergarten classes of Warren County.

This month we'll prepare for and celebrate Easter and Earth Day, review our shapes, colors, numbers, and letters, and our afternoon class will continue to work hard at learning skills they will need for kindergarten. As we prepare for the end of the school year, A Safe Place will do their annual presentation about summer safety and stranger danger. On April 27, the Jefferson Defrees Center will hold its Annual Children's Fair from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. There will be plenty of hands on activities for the kids and community resources will be available. April promises to be a very busy month!

We still have openings in both classes for the 2019-2020 preschool year. Please contact the church office if you know of someone in need of a registration form! We would like to thank everyone that donated to our S.O.C. (Support our Children) offering on March 31 and helped in any way with our Baked Potato fundraiser.

Happy Spring!
Trish Gentilman

April is my favorite month. Not because it's the month I was born in, but because it normally means spring is coming.

Also, Easter. Easter is my favorite holiday. Not for the candy or the egg hunts, but for the fact that our lord and savior died on the cross for our sins so we could have life everlasting and we would not have to endure the pain he did every time we sin our self. Just like the song Up from the Grave He Arose says, "Up from the grave he arose; with a mighty triumph o'er his foes." One of my favorite Easter songs.

In April the youth will be attending the Kane District Youth Night at Kane First UMC, on April 7, 2019. Also, Vacation Bible School planning has begun. This year it is being held at Warren First UMC on July 21-25, 2019 from 6:00-8:15 pm. If you are interested in helping out, please let me know. (kayla@graceumcwarren.com) Save the date to send your kid.

~Kayla Schwanke – Director of Family Ministries

We are excited for spring. We will be spending as much time as we can outside doing things like science, gym time, and social studies as we explore out town.

Our staff will be participating in an all-day training event on April 22. We will be getting certified in CPR, first aid, fire safety, emergencies, and water safety. We are looking forward to a full day of learning so we will be closed to all children.

We have been busy working on our summer program. So far some of the activities we have planned include swimming, nature programs, cooking week, and trips to the library. We are always looking for people to come in and read stories, play instruments, do a fun activity, or share an interest.

We look forward to all the activities we have planned. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns our door is always open.

Flock Talk!
The Poor We Will Have With Us Always
 Who are they? And, where are they? We hear about homeless people in the cities, not places like Warren. But they are here. They are within our reach, however greatly we choose to stretch for them. And, we do. Our Food Pantry is attended by beloved church members, Harold and Janis Wall and Bev Himes. It is no small feat to do what they do. If ever there were people who deserved our gratitude, these treasured folks are them. It is an endless sojourn back and forth stocking and organizing. Many of us at Grace Church never get to see the beauty in it. There are numerous donators, loyal volunteers and serious effort on behalf of Meghan and Mary. Running a food pantry is worth every cent, every thought and every step. People are fed, families receive respite, and most of all, children go to bed full. The L.A.M.B. pet food pantry is rather self-sufficient. It grew like a Newfoundland puppy and has remained healthy and beneficial. Presently, we have partnered with the Salvation Army to help locate homeless people who still have something of great value, their hungry pet. Russell Vet Hospital put on a food drive for us and we are thrilled to have this ministry in the public eye. Our church is a remarkable body of believers. The eyes see the great need as they sweep the horizon for lostness. The ears listen and conclude and bring the stories of those in need to our source of help. The hands, oh yes, they are Harold and Janis and Bev. They are the people who help make it possible to hand food to those whose trust is in our brotherly love. The feet, well that is you. All of you who have gathered items in your cart. All of you who have carried groceries bags up the stairs. The homeless can always look forward to their home in eternity with Christ. The fortunate rest of us have both luxuries, the here and the future Kingdom of God. We have a real opportunity every day to bless and to love one another. Let's pray that "the word is out" about The Word, and about the Good News. It really is up to us.

 Sue Toombs, Lay Leader

Outreach Ministries will be hosting another

Rummage Sale on Saturday, April 27th from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.! This will raise money to benefit Grace Church Outreach ministries. Please bring your treasures to donate on Thursday from 5-7 p.m. or Friday from 4-6 p.m. (Remember, no adult clothes, please.) We also need VOLUNTEERS to help with this auspicious event! Please contact Chuck Keeports (688-8534) with questions or to sign up!

The Grace Church Food Pantry is not in need of anything at this time. Thank you to all who contribute to the Grace Church Food Pantry!

Grace Fitness Health Series

The final episode of our health presentations is titled "The Art of Exercise". It will be held Monday, April 29th from 6:45-7:45pm in Higginbotham Hall.

Workouts take time. With this very simple concept, we realize that the choice to put forth effort should be as effective and enjoyable as possible. When we choose to go from what is easy to difficult, that's where grace comes in.

God designed us to move. We get stronger, we burn calories, we strengthen our bones and we last longer. We can walk away from a good hour of exercise and learn to feel God's grace working in our life. It comes through our effort to stay strong. The best solution for continued motivation is the spiritual benefits.

God made us, He redeems us, and as Christians it is our decision to be a good servant with a healthy outlook. Let's take a closer look at how to keep this within reach!

Usher teams are looking to add to their numbers! Please indicate your interest on a communication card from the pew pocket or contact Don Anthony or Richard Thoma.

TECH teams are looking to Spring Ahead adding to their numbers!

Please prayerfully consider joining the team. Act on that spark of an idea – training will be provided. What a blessing it would be to add you to the team that is behind the scenes "pointing" us through our wonderful worship services! Please indicate your interest on a communication card found in the pew pockets!

Thank you & God Bless!
Worship Committee

We are at the end of our 'Covered by Grace' ministry for the year and are pleased that we were able to give 1,727 items to those in need this winter! You may still donate items by putting them in the gray tote across from Pastor Bill's office. They will be put into storage for next fall. Thank you to everyone who contributed to this ministry!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR TWO LOCAL MINISTRIES

The Outreach/Witness Committee is offering 2 opportunities for mission work in Grace UMC's area:

THE SHARING PLACE and the KANE DISTRICT RAMPS MINISTRY:

THE SHARING PLACE:

This ministry involves the set-up, serving, and clean-up of a meal offered at Warren's First Presbyterian Church (300 Market St.) on Thursday afternoons. This is something Grace Church's members supported for many years until 2018. We used to have three teams of 8 to 10 people each. Each team served two to three times per year. Four people for each team provided desserts each time their team was responsible to serve the meal.

Last year we were not able to encourage enough people to form even one team for 2019. Other churches have stepped in to take the place of Grace UMC since it was no longer participating, but we would like to have our members involved in this local mission work once again, because it is a way to reach out to the community for Christ.

We are hoping enough people will agree to help with this ministry that we can form two teams to set-up, serve, and clean-up the Thursday meals which we are assigned to do in 2020. Why ask this so early in the year? Because the schedule for each year is completed before the fall of the previous year. So, the Outreach/Witness Committee needs to know the names and contact information of volunteers by July 1.

There is a way you can be involved THIS year. Praise Fellowship's members are serving and providing desserts twice monthly throughout 2019. They would be happy to have some help. If you are interested in “testing the waters” or learning how the set-up, serving, and clean-up process works, you may come alongside a Praise Fellowship team on any of their scheduled Thursdays; we have the dates.

There is no cooking involved. First Presbyterian Church provides the chef. Even the desserts can be purchased at the store and don’t have to be home-made. The schedule for the Thursdays is as follows:

- Early volunteers report at 3:00pm (Usually 3 people). The duties are to set tables, prepare beverages, dish desserts, and whatever else needs done.
- Other servers are to arrive by 4:00pm. Meal service begins at 4:30 and goes to 5:30. Be prepared to clean up the dining room and the kitchen. All helpers get to eat as a group, and, in general, cleaning is completed by 6:00 pm.
- Dessert people: Bring your dessert of choice to First Presbyterian’s kitchen by 3:00pm that day. (Desserts can be one 9 by13 pan (cake or other dessert) OR 4 dozen cookies, OR 2 dozen cupcakes, etc.)

Remember, each team serves only 2 to 3 times a year. Please give your name and contact information (mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail, if you have one) to Renee Magnuson (438 Buchanan St., Warren, PA 163665; (814) 726-7890; radmagnuson@gmail.com. Please step sign up, so that Grace UMC can participate in this local mission work once again. The Outreach/Witness Committee

KANE DISTRICT RAMP MINISTRY:

How do people in need of a ramp at their residence find out about the Ramp Ministry?

In a recent article about the Ramp Ministry, Rev. Jay Tennes said, “Referrals have come from churches, veteran’s organizations, social services groups, word of mouth, and even a booth at the Warren County Fair. Ramps have been installed in Warren, McKean, Potter, and Forest Counties.” Dean Clough, the volunteer coordinator at Youngsville Evangelical UMC, says volunteers are needed to help assemble and install the ramps. Clough states, “In the past three years, our ministry has completed more than 30 ramps.” You don’t have to be an expert with tools to assist with the assembly. Another way to help is by providing a simple lunch for the ramp builders on work day.

Work days vary, but the Outreach/Witness Committee coordinator would always have a week’s “heads up” if not more time.

We ask that anyone at Grace who would be willing to help with this ministry, please give your name and contact information to either Cherlye Stellato (tcstellato@atlanticbb.net) or Renee Magnuson (radmagnuson@gmail.com). If you don’t have e-mail, please give your information to one of us at church or call us.

Providing ramps for people in need is a blessing to the recipients and to the workers who construct those ramps. Please consider being a blessing to others through this program.
