Waiting

I've never been much good at waiting. You'd think I'd be better at it – when I was a kid everything I ever ordered out of a comic book took 4-6 weeks for delivery (and those x-ray glasses were a total hoax!). And the process!!! I had to save up my allowance, go to the post office and get a money order (and pay extra for THAT) and fill it out and send it in. And hope springs eternal in [a young man's] breast (or so said Alexander Pope) so the next day I'd check the mailbox. No package. And the next day. No package. And again. And again. Turns out I've never been very good at waiting.

Now it's worse. Online shopping has ruined me. If I can't get it shipped for free in two days... why bother? I can't wait forever after all! Super-fast internet, microwave meals, quick charging batteries, instant rebates (remember mailing those clippings in back in the day – man, I'm getting old). Everything is in a hurry today.

But waiting can be a spiritual discipline. And it's not one that I'm very good at, either.

Psalm 27:14 says:

Wait for the Lord;
be strong and take heart
and wait for the Lord.

Lamentations 3:25-26 says:

The Lord is good to those whose hope is in him,
to the one who seeks him;
it is good to wait quietly
for the salvation of the Lord.

Isaiah 40:31 says:

But those who wait on the Lord
Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.

While we may not like to wait, God calls us to patience (or as the KJV calls it longsuffering). I want God to do what I want God to do right now. God says, "Wait for the Lord."

In a few weeks we will be celebrating the resurrection of Christ – Easter Sunday! But the week leading up to Easter reminds us of the spiritual discipline that waiting for God can be. On Maundy Thursday we read of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane praying from the very depths of his being to be released from what is coming. "If it is possible, let this cup pass from me." (Mt 26:39) Waiting in agony for a response, waiting in agony for what he knows is coming in the next hours.

After Jesus' crucifixion, death and burial, the disciples are lost and bewildered, waiting for... they really don't even seem to know what they're waiting for because when Mary tells them on Sunday morning that Jesus is alive again, they don't believe her. After Jesus' ascension, the disciples wait in Jerusalem for Jesus' promise of the coming of the Holy Spirit to be fulfilled (and they finally seem to be able to wait this time! – Luke 24, Acts 1).

Wait upon the Lord. If we trust that God really does have everything under control (however we come to understand that), then we need to trust in God's time and God's timing – in whatever it is. Have you been praying about something day after day but you still don't seem to have an answer? Wait upon the Lord. Do you struggle with some sin in your life? (I can have a very judgmental spirit, for example). Keep confessing, keep repenting, keep trusting that God is working on you. I write this as there's rumblings in our denomination about the theological and cultural divide, I write this as there's rumblings in politics about ideologies and blame-shifting on both sides, I write this as families are struggling to make ends meet or struggling to reconcile differences or figure out how to move on. I write this as churches struggle to meet the money and people demands of doing ministry in this climate of financial insecurity and personal over-commitment (and Grace Church is feeling it too!).

Yet... God has always come through. God always will come through.

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength.

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Bill

I recently had the privilege of singing one of my favorite songs with the MadriGals titled "Day By Day". The words were written by the Swedish poet Carolina Sandell Berg, translated by Andrew L. Skoog, with the music written by Oscar Ahnfelt.

I have found a lot of comfort in these words.

Day By Day

Day by day and with each passing moment, strength I find to meet my trials here.
Trusting in my Father's wise bestowment, I've no cause for worry or for fear.
He whose heart is kind beyond all measure Gives unto each day what He deems best,
Lovingly it's part of pain and pleasure, Mingling toil with peace and rest.

Every day the Lord himself is near me With a special mercy for each hour.
All my cares He fain would bear and cheer me, He whose name is Counselor and Pow'r.
The protection of His child and treasure Is a charge that on Himself He laid.
"As your days, your strength shall be in measure," This the pledge to me He made.

Help me then in every tribulation So to trust Your promises, O Lord,
That I lose not faith's sweet consolation Offered me within Your holy Word.
Help me, Lord, when toil and trouble meeting, E'er to take, as from a Father's hand,
One by one, the days, the moments fleeting, 'Til I reach the Promised Land.

I'll hold on to this prayer for a long time.

By the way, the word "fain" describes acting with pleasure, gladly. "All my cares He would gladly bear and cheer me, He whose name is Counselor and Power".

Celebrate with us each Sunday morning at 8:30, 9:30, or 11:00 either comfortably in person or online anytime. Look for a blessing. Look for peace.

PATIENCE

I came across this statement: "Patience is not the ability to wait; it's the ability to keep a good attitude while we wait". Interesting!

Granted, there are times when we wait in excited anticipation and we seem impatient .... think waiting for Christmas as a child; waiting for the call that a baby has arrived; counting the days until your wedding! You get the idea.

However, maintaining a "good attitude while we wait" is more difficult when you are the one waiting for others to be on your time schedule. For instance, when the car is loaded but the rest of the family isn't ready; when the meeting starts at 1:00 but not everyone is present. (OUCH!) What appropriate situations those are to extend grace to those around you.

The Bible is replete with verses about patience. As Paul was presenting his case before King Agrippa he said, "Therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently" (Acts 23:3). He was asking the King not just to listen to his whole testimony, but to listen with a good attitude.

James 5:7-8 extols us to "Be patient until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop and how patient he is for the rains to come. You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord's coming is near". And he wrote that how many centuries ago??!!

AAHHH .... and to have the patience of Job!

Appropriately, I will end with Revelation. At least 3 times John uses the phrase "patient endurance". That really puts it all into perspective .... patience for the long haul! Patience through the anticipation of days to come; through the trials and uncertainty. And all the while, waiting for the Lord to return.

PATIENCE

... not just waiting, but waiting with a good attitude.

Waiting patiently for Easter Sunday,
Cindy Price

Hello everyone! Thank you for your continued support!

We have a lot of exciting activities coming up! I would like to tailor our monthly children's activities towards their interest! Each month at the beginning of the month we will have a poll on Facebook to vote for the activity!

We will be having our easter egg hunt on April 10th at 1pm! We are in need of candy and small trinkets to put into the eggs!

Keep tuned on our bulletin board for upcoming events and monthly devotionals/ activities!

It's hard to believe our school year is quickly coming to an end! We are thankful for a fun year of learning and growing despite COVID-19. We pray next year we will be able to carry on under "normal" circumstances.

It is great to finally see spring weather. We plan on going for some walks, play outside in the sunshine and breath in that fresh air. In April we will prepare for and celebrate Easter and Earth Day, review our shapes, colors, numbers, and letters, and our afternoon class will continue to work hard at learning skills they will need for kindergarten.

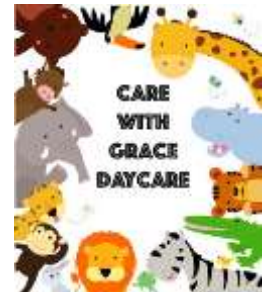

We still have openings in both classes for the 2022-2023 preschool year. Please contact the church office if you know of someone in need of a registration form!

We want to thank our Grace Church family and friends for a successful Sarris Candies Fundraiser! We have raised over $500 as of the middle of March and you can still order for Easter until April 10!

Happy Easter! HE IS RISEN INDEED!

Trish Gentilman & Jen Lynds

Warmer weather is finally here to stay! In the month of April, we are looking forward to spending more time outside in the sun! We will be taking more walks and playing in the yard outside instead of the gym. We are also looking forward to Good Friday and Easter. The children that attend school of course are most excited about not having to go to school. But for the rest of us, we reflect on what it means to sacrifice for others when they truly need us. We are also looking forward to coloring eggs and planting things in our daycare garden.

Director

Flock Talk

"He will feed His flock like a Shepherd."

Isaiah 40:11a

When our minds are filled with Easter, our thoughts embrace the Lamb of God. We may have wondered, "Why a lamb?" We know the symbolism of the lamb in ancient days. We understand the atonement and the connection to the Passover lamb. But, still, "Why a lamb?"

I grew up around lambs and if there's one thing you can be certain of it's this - they are perfect. They are more than soft and loveable. They are uniquely without blemish. They have an innocence that transcends the impishness of kittens and the playfulness of puppies. By nature, they are nuggets of harmlessness.

Jesus was without stain of mankind's sin when He walked on the earth. He was spotless from the mannerisms we excuse in ourselves. He was love personified. Could there have been any other animal in comparison that was so undeserving of what happened to Him?

In Revelation, He is called the Lion of Judah once. However, He is called the Lamb 24 times. God always does the unexpected. Crowning a lamb instead of a lion is His way! God exalted the Lamb because the Lamb humbled Himself as the ultimate sacrifice.

The moral of this little story is that lambs are to be looked after, to be loved, to be protected. All animals deserve such tender care. Seek ways to be kind to nature, and maybe especially the ones who are not spotless, the ones who are old and in need. Love them, care for them, feed them. Be a friend to all animals, all the time.

Tenderly,
Sue Toombs, Lay Leader

Fitness and Nutrition Class!

Beginning April 1st, there will be a fitness class accompanied by health and wellness coaching. The class will be held in Higginbotham Hall every Friday morning from 11:00 – 11:45 am. Bring a mat and a pair of weights that you are comfortable using. Plan on staying for the Christian yoga class at 12:15 if you would like extra fellowship time while pursuing better health! Please contact Sue Toombs if you have any questions. 814-730- 9996.

By the time the newsletter goes out, we should have completed the classes and will have 4 new acolytes ready to be installed and to begin serving after Easter. They are Eddie Anderson, Bobbi Gafner, Emma Lyle, and Riley Lyle. The final session was a pizza party and included invitations to the 10 current acolytes to get acquainted with the 'newbies.

The Season of Lent

February can be a challenging month...

the Christmas season is past and the impact on our finances starts to become a reality;
 our New Year's resolutions start to lose their luster;
 the long season of winter seems to hold us in its grasp for just a little longer than we all would like.

As February is challenging for all of us, it can be challenging for the church too. The financials for February were down from the prior two months.

The season of Lent is a season of preparation for Easter. We remember the 40 days that Jesus spent in fasting in the wilderness. As we prepare for Easter and think of this season of "fasting", let us try to remember the sacrifices we might make in our Christian journey.

Dear members of Grace UMC,

Thank you for your prayers, phone calls, text messages, emails, greeting cards and messages on social media that you sent during Jim Adams' recent hospitalization and resulting death. Thank you also for each of the birthday cards that you sent to Jim in July 2021 in celebration of his 79th birthday. You helped to make his final birthday extremely joyous. Jim said he received more birthday cards in recognition of that birthday than he had received for all of his previous birthdays combined! His death, occurring only three months and three days after the death of Marty, his wife of 58 years and our mom, has been very difficult for me and my sister. The many sympathy cards and messages of prayers we received helped us to remember that we were not alone during our time of grief, and they provided us with a great deal of comfort. Thank you for the food you provided to us and for the lovely luncheon that was held after Jim's funeral. He would have loved it! It gave us an opportunity to hear stories about him which was very therapeutic for us. Thank you also to those who submitted a monetary gift to Grace UMC in memory of Jim. Grace UMC held a special place in Jim's heart, and the kindness of its members to Jim and to his family will never be forgotten.

Sincerely,

Shari Adams and Karen Adams Trapasso, Jim's daughters

Dear Grace Church,

Thank you very much for all of your prayers while I was hospitalized and in rehab for my broken ankle. We are also so grateful for those who sent over meals. It was so appreciated.
