From the Pastor

General Conference 2020- a personal reflection from Pastor Bill

Every four years, the United Methodist Church holds a world-wide denominational meeting that we call General Conference. It is at this legislative meeting, held in May, that changes are proposed which affect the whole denomination. Representatives are sent from every Annual and Central Conference. We are a part of the Western Pennsylvania Annual Conference, so we have six clergy and six laity delegates elected to represent usⁱ, to consider the legislation presented, and to vote accordingly.

There will be many topics discussed at General Conference this year, but the one that has received the most attention is related to the future of the denomination. Last February a special General Conference was held (an extension of General Conference 2016, if you will) which put forward what was called the Traditional Planⁱⁱ for the church, reinforcing the current language in the Book of Discipline (our book of Polity and Doctrine).

A few weeks ago, a proposal was put forward called "A Protocol of Reconciliation & Grace Through Separation"ⁱⁱⁱ which was reported widely in the news. This is one of now five proposals put forth for the consideration of the future of the denomination^{iv}, in addition, individuals can make proposals for legislation as well, so there are certainly other ideas in circulation, but these are the "official" proposals (as I understand it).

The process at General Conference is, as you might expect, somewhat cumbersome (my opinion) in that the conference has to follow very strict protocols of calling for debate, amendments to the legislation which must be considered individually and supported or struck down, etc. Sometimes legislation is altered considerably through the process, sometimes very little or nothing is changed.

So, what does that mean for us as Grace Church? Well, it means we need to pray for General Conference, for our delegates and for the legislation that is being proposed.

What might it mean for Grace Church? That's much harder to answer. The plans as I read them are mostly about dealing with buildings and money and pensions and financial liabilities, more so than theological differences (which seem to me to mostly revolve around clergy issues). The denomination has been theologically diverse for a long time but there seems to be a significant enough divide right now that all the proposals put forth, in one way or another, functionally split the denomination. So, it is possible that any one of these proposals will gain majority support and become official for the denomination(s) moving forward. It is possible that none of these proposals will gain a majority vote, or that one proposal will gain a majority but only after amendments which significantly alter the nature of the proposed legislation. It is possible that, functionally, nothing will change or that a great deal will change.

How do we prepare? The same way we prepare for not knowing what tomorrow will bring for us. We pray, we trust that God through the Holy Spirit can work in ways that we don't always see and don't always understand but ways that reveal God's faithfulness and God's grace and God's mercy.

"I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say, 'My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.'" (Isaiah 46:10)

So, let's talk about it. Let's wonder what might happen. By all means, let's understand what the proposals being put forth really say. And undergirding it all: let's pray and trust God.

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Bill

On a glorious August Sunday Kent dropped me off at the parking lot door and wished me good luck. I burst into tears saying, “What have I done?” I had left the comfort and familiar faces at Emanuel Church to come to Grace where everyone was already comfortable. I had been at Emanuel for 26 years (about ½ my life) where I met and married my husband, welcomed, baptized and confirmed our children, but it was time to move on. Out of the blue Alice Bonnell called and asked if I’d like to come to Grace. My mouth said “yes” and 2 days later I met with Stan Pearson, Dr Lowe and Alice. I was hired. I told them they weren’t getting a young chickie... I was already well into middle age.

So, I started. It was great! The choir was large, very good and cooperative, and it kept getting larger! Louise Schmittle, a former music teacher, was full of suggestions and a big help. Jeannette Silzlie played the piano with the hymns, did piano solos, and played for the Real Joy Trio: Karen Gray, Vickie Morrison and Carol Knowlton were already established and sang every where. That was the beginning of the talent show. Small groups began – The Madrigals, a group of 10, singing all a cappella sang everywhere too. They sang at weddings, for entertainment, for various groups, for other churches and for fundraisers. The Madrigals are still singing today with the core group still intact. We have mourned the deaths of Ken Foreman, Kent Petersen, Gail Nelson, Bob Higginbotham, but Carol & Larry Knowlton, Kristin Moore, LuAnn Saeli, Trish & Bill Gentilman, Vickie Morrison and Kris Magnuson remain with us.

The Inspirations – Karen Conarro, Beth MacPherson and Trish Gentilman were a refreshing change. They sang and rang chimes at the same time. I played for all of their weddings, which was so sweet.

The Reflections, a younger group of girls sang together for a couple of years.

“The Girls” came a lot later. They were in grades 7-9 and wow-ed the congregation. They were Maria and Maribeth Miller, Carmen Pearce and Megan Moore. College came and one by one they left.

During this time the men’s chorus emerged. There were over 15 men who practiced each Sunday morning and were just wonderful.

There was also a big youth choir, a children’s choir, who sang for church functions besides the regular services.

Handbells were very popular then and we joined the ringers all over for festivals and concerts, plus regular church services.

We had the Grace Handbells, Youth Ringers, children’s bells and children’s chimes.

Each one of the above groups can produce a story or 2. I know I can!

There was even a group of women who played recorders (tonettes) and we were good when nobody squeaked. When that happened, we’d dissolve into laughing. It was not a long-lasting group.

Thirty-three years in a long time – a whole generation has come and gone. The babies who were born when I started are now raising babies of their own.

And at the other end of life, I’ve said goodbye to more people than I can or will name. May they all rest in peace.

The memories that are crowding in right now are so precious to me. They are of the love that Grace Church gave. It is the support they gave to everything we did, including buying choir robes, another set of bells, another piano, and little love notes written by those who enjoyed the concerts, or just were touched by an anthem on a particular Sunday. They all meant so very much and I hope they will continue to those who come after me.

I didn’t go into specific stories because there are more than I have room to write. Just ask a choir or bell member to tell a story and I know they could.

I want to thank everyone for your love and support, and the choirs, my darling children – I love you with all my heart and will miss you more than you'll ever know. May that love reach out to Floyd, Carmen, Beth and everyone who follows.

I've been here almost 1/3 of my life and have never said again, "What have I done?"

With great love and thanks,
Beverly

P.S. Come to church!

From the Director of Congregational Care

"What's your name?"

Recently, we visited precious Addie (our granddaughter) and her parents in Lancaster, PA. While there, we took the time to meet for lunch with Jim and Martha. Keith had met them in Haiti over 40 years ago when they were all serving in LaPointe. Their mission work has always been to serve Haitians through education. And they continue to do so here in PA! When the waitress approached our table, Jim immediately asked, "What's your name?". That was the initial inquiry that led to many more over the course of our meal. Each time she returned, Jim or Martha had another question ready. We learned a lot about her; her long day at work, her family, where she grew up, how she works the holidays and that she does make the traditional Pork and Sauerkraut for New Year's Day! And, she learned a bit about all of us, too.

Keith and I remarked to each other later that we had noticed how Jim and Martha became involved with our waitress. This was beyond the pleasant and expected "How are you today?". That question leads to the standard answers. And, really, do most people really care when they ask that? Some do. But most ask it out of habit. Jim and Martha showed us that we all can be emissaries for the Lord. I know that I need to take the time to ask questions that allow people to share parts of their selves with me. And that may lead to the bigger question, "Do you know Jesus Christ?".

"... let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." Matthew 5:16 (NIV)

I want to thank everyone again for the support of the lip balm fundraiser. I enjoyed getting to talk with you in Wesley Parlor and share something I'm passionate about, which is using cosmetics and other products that are free of harsh chemicals. I am happy to report that $264.00 in profit will be added to the fund for Children's Ministries. I will certainly be selling lip balm again next year!

As most of you know, I have three small children at home. If you don't know this, then you probably haven't seen my two youngest squirming about in the pew on Sunday, my husband and I attempting to keep them moderately quiet and placated. It seems like one of their favorite things to do throughout the service is throw their heads back with a big open-mouthed grin, leaving their neck exposed for a playful tickle. Never does it cross their mind when they do this that Keith or I would fail to catch them, letting them fall and get hurt. They toss about with happy abandon knowing that no matter how much they wiggle, they're safe. I admit there have been times when I wasn't prepared for one of them to toss their head back with such gusto, making my heart jump a tiny bit in fear, but I always catch them and they always believe that I will catch them. The apostle Paul wrote in Hebrews 11:6 "And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him." Like the innocent faith my children have in me that I won't let them fall, we too must have faith in our heavenly Father who is distinctly deserving of it. God doesn't live in doubt or uncertainty like we do. He is the same now as he always has been. In no way can we catch God off guard, no matter how much we squirm or wiggle, no matter what unexpected circumstances we find ourselves in, God knows. You can rest in the blessed assurance that no matter how much it might seem untrue, God has his mighty hand on you and he won't let you fall.

We are thankful we haven't missed any school so far this year, but winter isn't over yet! We will see what Punxsutawney Phil predicts on the 2nd and will hope for an early spring! The children have settled back into the routine after our Christmas break and are well into our winter activities. Our three- year old class starting their color unit and doing "homework". The four- year old class is working on their "Passports to Kindergarten" and proudly adding stars for each skill they master.

As we begin our February activities, we look forward to Valentine's Day and our annual Family Dinner. The children enjoy preparing Valentine cards for their families and decorating Higginbotham Hall for the dinner. It is a wonderful time for all of us to gather, share a meal and fellowship. Our class Valentine's party is always great fun as we share treats and cards from our friends.

Registration for the 2020-2021 schoolyear is well under way for current preschool, Grace Church & daycare families. We will open to the public on February 1, 2020, so if you or someone you know would like to register a child for next school year, please pick up a registration form from the office or call the preschool room at 723-8011. We usually fill up quickly, so reserve your spot now!

Again, we would like to thank our Grace Church family for sharing part of the S.O.C. (support our children) offering with our preschool program. We are so grateful for all the support we receive. Please pray for our enrollment for the upcoming school year!

Happy Valentine's Day from all of us at Grace Promise Preschool!

“Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.”

Psalm 51:10

Have you ever been too busy to read an article about how to slow down? Or, have you ever thought about attending a special service at church only to find it’s just not going happen? Too busy, too tired, too easy to say “maybe next year.”

Here’s an idea, let’s find time this month to read an article or Scripture on the reasons to “be still”. Then, let’s mark the calendar for February 25th at 7pm. Our Ash Wednesday service is a reason to slow down, to be still and know that He is God. It is an opportunity to join in this heartfelt time worship. The service is deeply meaningful. It is a very peaceful and a very humbling tradition. The only commitment is our acceptance of Christ as our Savior.

If you have never attended this service, please know your presence will add dearly to the goodness enjoyed by all. If you are a regular on Ash Wednesday, then you know how different you feel as you leave. It’s a beautiful start to the Easter season and gives us a strong foothold for the days ahead. We hope to see you!

Encouragingly,
Sue Toombs, Lay Leader

"Overpower Stress With Exercise"*
Tuesday, February 18th at 6:45 pm in Higginbotham Hall

Here's the good news! About five minutes of aerobic exercise begins to stimulate our anti-anxiety effects. Exercise is considered vital for mental fitness. It reduces fatigue, increases alertness and produces natural endorphins that act as painkillers. Exercise improves our quality of sleep, which in turn reduces stress. Improving our physical condition does more than fight disease. It works quickly to elevate depressed moods. Everybody responds uniquely to different types of exercise. Find out what works best for you and fortify your defenses. Bring a friend, bring questions. I'll supply the suggestions!

RAMP MINISTRY UPDATE!

The Ramps ministry was very busy this past year! They installed 53 ramps in the district, with a total of over 200 hours of volunteer work! The number of volunteers per installation averaged between 4 and up to 17 workers. Some news for the upcoming year is that the ministry received a grant from the DeFrees Foundation in Warren. They provided funds to update and replace some of the tooling currently being used. Dean is also hoping to use existing tooling to help out a group on the other side of the district to get started. Also in the works, is adding some wording/ phone number to the work trailer so the public will know about this ministry and how to contact them. Thanks to all of you who volunteered your time and talent for this much-needed ministry! We will be in touch when the building season begins again!

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY will start Tuesday, March 3rd (7:00pm) and Wednesday, March 4th (8:45 a.m. or 10:45 a.m.). We will meet in Wesley Parlor where we have met previously. The study is Colossians and Philemon by Martha Reapsome. The course has ten sessions ending May 5th and 6th. You will need to read the book of Colossians (found in the New Testament) before the start of the study. Study books are $7.00. Please pay the first day of class with cash or by a check made out to "Grace U.M.C." with "Bible Study book" on the memo line. Please sign up for Bible study by February 12th so I can be sure to have enough books ordered. Please contact me at (814) 726-7890 or radmagnuson@gmail.com. Looking forward to this study.
