Vision 20/20

At the turn of the new year, do you reflect on the past or look toward the future? Maybe both? 2019 has been a powerful year for Grace Church. We've launched some ministries (like our Children and Family Ministry) and seen some transitions begin in others as Karen Gray has retired and Bev Petersen is preparing to retire. We've welcomed new members and welcomed new babies and we've said goodbye to some who have moved away and said goodbye to some who have moved on to glory.

So, the year 2020 has begun. While we don't know what new challenges and new adventures await us, we do know that God will be with us and we know that God will take care of us.

Looking ahead, I believe that God wants to challenge each and every one of us to take our faith more seriously, to take a step deeper in discipleship, to "seek the Lord while He may be found, [to] call upon Him while He is near." (Isaiah 55:6) Those aren't just church-y words, I really do believe that God has something powerful in store for Grace Church in 2020, and I pray that we will listen and we will respond.

In January, our worship series will be called "20/20 Vision" (because I love a good Dad pun). We will be exploring our vision for this year and beyond.

What are our core values?

Who are we serving?

How do we reach those who are far from God?

How do we pass this faith on to the next generation?

How do we live out our faith every day?

When do we pray?

We will be focusing in (heh, another Dad pun 😊) on the words of Jesus as we think through our vision for 2020.

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Bill

Christmas has come and gone... we spend weeks working on Christmas music and in a blink of an eye it's over and everyone's looking forward to the Super Bowl.

The concert was just wonderful and the choir rose to their glorious heights as always. My heartfelt thanks go to Kris, the trombones, the children, the choir, and all the soloists. Grace Church is so very blessed... I hope you all realize this. Thanks to Linda Knapp and all the elves for putting on a memorable reception. The fans stayed forever, which was great!! Thank you, everyone, for just everything! It's a very special page in my book of memories.

With all the beautiful music, we stopped to mourn with 2 special families: Stantons and Morrisons. Nancy Stanton and her family were faithful choir members during their years at Grace. We could always count on them coming off the hill to sing with the choir. Heaven is a better place since she arrived. May God bless and comfort Zeke and family as they struggle through the holiday season. Shortly after Nancy's service we attended the funeral for Ray Morrison. If you went to 8:30 church, Ray was always there. He greeted, too up the collection, counted the faithful ad was terribly missed when life got too hard for him to attend. We grieve with Vickie and Trish, and know Heaven is a more organized place with Ray there. May God comfort all of you also.

How did you like that duet from the balconys? It was so good!! We didn't know what to call them – Mutt and Jeff, Jekyll and Hyde, Ernie and Bert... whatever... Don and Floyd were super! Thanks to all the soloists, and of course to Kris – wow – I could never have gotten through without him. Thank you, my friend.

Happy New Year to all! Start the new decade off by coming to church!

From the Director of Congregational Care

“Uh... Say What?!”

The Bible is filled with stories of heaven-sent proclamations and commands. We know that God spoke to his children in a variety of ways: with His voice, from within a burning bush, through dreams and by angelic messengers. So, how do you hear God in your life?

Recently, I was asked to be the Director of Congregational Care, upon Karen Gray’s retirement. My first reaction was ..... Oh no, not me! ..... I don’t have enough time..... I don’t have the skill set..... excuses, excuses, excuses. Then this tiny voice said.... “Wait”. So, my answer became, “Let me pray and think about it”. Within the next few days I experienced some insights that were NEW to me. They seemed to be both an urging and a confidence to move forward and take this STEP of FAITH.

Since starting in this position, I have been blessed by meeting with friends, acquaintances and some complete strangers. Words have come from my mouth that have astounded me. I had not thought of them in advance! It has been God speaking through me. And, all of the encouragement from my Grace family has been very important to me. I thank each and every one of you for that!

As I am learning to place my trust in God for all things, great and small, I pray that you will too. “Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight.” Prov 3:5-6

I want to thank all of you for your support with the Beeswax Lip Balm fundraiser.

I never expected to sell out on the first Sunday, but sell out is just what happened thanks to the generosity of our church family. What a wonderful way to show your support. I will continue to sell lip balm into January in case you missed it last month. Stay tuned for details about the “What is Love” event in February focusing on God’s amazing love.

We are moving into the long haul of winter in northwestern PA after the festivities of the Christmas season. Many people love the change of the seasons in our area, but dread these long winter months ahead. I cultivated a love for all things winter when I was in college and Keith and I purchased season ski passes to Peek’n Peak. Every Sunday evening, engineering homework solved, research papers written, we would pack in Keith’s jeep and head to the resort. We used the cheapest equipment we could find, borrowing skis from Keith’s cousin that hadn’t seen the light of day since before we were born, wearing layers and layers of clothes not suited for the conditions so we didn’t freeze, and buying each other mittens for Christmas. My first pair ski boots didn’t even have soles in the bottom, a cheap find on eBay, which left my feet aching by the end of the evening, the pain well worth the experience. Of course we were terrible in the beginning, something I can’t owe completely to our outdated gear. We stayed close to the bunny hill, having no idea how to even get on or off the ski lift and to my embarrassment, I missed my mark and rode it back down the hill a time or two. Keith once wrecked into a tree going down a hill that was above our skill level and I vividly remember wiping out hard on a black diamond trail and needing to be taken down the hill in a toboggan by the ski patrol, my ankle sore for weeks, my pride hurting for even longer. We have since upgraded to better gear and our skill has greatly improved to where we feel confident skiing down most hills, not that any of it gets much use these days with three small kids in our house, but there was something about those early days learning to ski that I will forever cherish. It wasn’t just the time spent with the man I now call my husband, but the idea that I showed up and I kept showing up even when it was hard or painful or I didn't know what I was doing. Isn't this what God asks of us? He doesn't promise us the best equipment, the perfect conditions, and a pain free ride. But he does ask us to show up. Maybe you're stuck on the lift or you hit a tree or you're stranded in a place that's more than you can handle. Just show up, have faith, and know that "the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, equip(s) you with everything good for doing his will, and may he work in us what is pleasing to him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever." Hebrews 13:20-21

December was a busy month full of excitement as we prepared for the Christmas season. We decorated the room and tree, learned many new songs and listened to wonderful stories. Both classes got to hear Pastor Bill tell the Christmas story as they sat around the nativity in the sanctuary. We made special gifts for our moms and dads and decorated our own gift wrap. Our parents came to school on December 19th to share our fun and see firsthand what preschool is like for us. When we return to school after our Christmas break, the morning class will begin working on colors, shapes and writing our names. The afternoon children will continue learning the skills they will need for kindergarten. We hope your Christmas season was filled with the same joy and excited anticipation that we experienced with our students. Registration for the 2020 - 2021 schoolyear will begin in January for our current preschool families, Care with Grace children and any Grace Church members. Be sure to pick up a registration form in the office or contact us at preschool@atlanticbbn.net so we can mail you a form. Registration will open to the public in February, so it is first come, first serve! We mourn the loss of our long-time board President, Nancy Stanton. She was a champion for Grace Promise Preschool and other children's ministries. We are honored to be the recipient of many gifts made in Nancy's memory. Our love and prayers go out to Nancy's family and friends! We have a 5th Sunday in December and will once again be taking a S.O.C. offering for our preschool and daycare programs. We are so blessed by the support and love we receive from our Grace Church family and beyond!

Happy New Year!

December was a very busy month. We celebrated Christmas by decorating the Christmas tree and having Pastor Bill tell us the Christmas Story. The Childcare is closed to students December 23-January 1. We will reopen January 2, 2020. On our closed days we made repairs, did some painting, cleaned everything and even fit in some staff training. Happy New Year!

EVERYONE IS WELCOMED to a reception honoring Karen Gray for her years of service as Director of Congregational Care. Sunday, January 12 in Higginbotham Hall following the 11am service.

Flock Talk

“Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.”

Romans 15:7

Have you noticed some changes in the air? There are new faces here and there, new positions filled on committees, and even some familiar faces reframing their lives. And so goes the beautiful life of the church!

Carey Nieuwhof, well-respected author, once said that “the most effective churches change constantly without changing the mission or the message. But, they always change the method so the mission stays alive and the message gets heard. And, that means change. It means taking a person from where they are to where they need to be.”

One of the areas where we have great influence with change is whether or not we invite people to church who do not attend regularly. Sometimes it’s awkward, sometimes it doesn’t work, but once in a while it creates a beam of light for someone to cross the threshold. God provides us with endless opportunities, but it comes down to us to say “Would you like to join me this Sunday?”

This new year will see many changes and there will be excitement in the air – new classes, different programs, and kids galore. Let’s invite new fellowship into the mix! Someone out there has been touched by life, or by Christmas, or even through hardship. Let’s offer them a great guest experience and some unconditional love!

Encouragingly,
Sue Toombs, Lay Leader

Love INC of Warren County is in search of a special person to fill the position of Call Center Manager here at Love INC and we are asking for your help in that search! The Call Center Manager has a very unique ministry to the community of Warren County, but it's also a flexible, part-time position. Love INC has some very specific goals for approaching the needs in our community in the coming year and this position is critical to realizing those goals! This role would be a perfect fit for someone looking for some flexible, part-time work. For more information or to apply, please call the Love INC office at 814-563-3394 or email director.loveincwc@gmail.com.

Grace Fitness Health Presentations

This year's presentations are focused on stress. But what exactly is stress? It's a bit of a disconnect between our situation and the resources we have to deal with it. Whether it is real or perceived, our brains release hormones into our bloodstream that impact our health. The areas most apt to struggle are our weight, our hearts and our energy levels. Many inroads are being made into the best approaches to "fix us" when stress affects our lifestyles. The foods we choose, the way we move and the healing methods we utilize all help to bring our lives back into balance. Knowing that some stress is productive and insightful, we learn the subtle differences between good or bad stressors.. The true starting point for dealing with stress is Jesus Christ. Believing in Him does not mean we will not feel overcome by pressure. It means that by believing in Him, we trust His peace will guard our hearts and minds.

These talks are free, they are open to anyone and they are an opportunity to ask questions. We meet in Higginbotham Hall at 7:00 pm for approximately 45 min. The talks are provided by Sue Toombs, ISSA Certified Fitness Trainer.

- Tuesday, January 21st "How Food Affects Stress Levels"
- Tuesday, February 18th "Overpower Stress With Exercise"
- Tuesday, March 17th "How to Relieve Stress Naturally"
- Tuesday, April 21st "Good Stress Versus Bad Stress"

Lori, Rachel, Elie and I want to thank everyone for your prayers, cards and presents these past few weeks. We are so blessed to serve here alongside you all, and you continue to bring joy to us! Merry Christmas!
Pastor Bill

YOU ARE INVITED to a reception on Saturday, January 4, 2020 in Higginbotham Hall. We will be celebrating the retirement at the end of 2019 of Dr. Keith Price and Kris Magnuson. Please drop by any time between 1:00 and 3:00p.m. to wish them well. (No gifts, please.)

The Grace Church Food Pantry is in need of tuna fish, Spam, boxed potatoes, applesauce, and brownie mix at this time. Thank you to all who contribute to the Grace Church Food Pantry!

Thank you to everyone who provided beautiful cookies and wonderful help for the choir concert reception. It was greatly appreciated.
