On Making Disciples

In worship, we're focusing on demonstrating our love for God by how we love other people. A subject that we return to frequently because Jesus said that of all the commands of God, the most important is to love God with all we are and to love other people. As we love our neighbors, we are showing them what being a disciple of Jesus is all about. Love God and love people is the Great Commandment. Go and make disciples is the Great Commission (it's the work we're called to do). In light of that, here are words I've shared before, but which bear repeating for us:

I'm more and more convicted that we need to do everything we can (short of sin!) to reach people with the Gospel, to disciple people in the truth of who Jesus is, to share this life of faith with everyone.

I was thinking about what it means to make disciples. I know I say it a lot (because it's important), our Mission Statement here at Grace Church is:

To know Christ and to make Him known to others.

This is the Great Commission, the mission statement of every Christ follower, of every church, the command from Jesus:

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup> Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup> and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." (Matthew 28:18-20)

But... how? HOW do we make disciples?

Look at what Jesus did. He had a three-fold approach to making disciples:

Come along side

<sup>18</sup> As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup> "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will send you out to fish for people." <sup>20</sup> At once they left their nets and followed him.

<sup>21</sup> Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, <sup>22</sup> and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. (Matthew 4:18-23)

Jesus said, "Follow me." There is a deep, spiritual meaning here that transcends the moment and speaks to you and I as well, but don't miss the simple, right-in-the-moment truth of what Jesus is saying to Peter and Andrew and James and John: Come along side me. Learn by watching. Learn by experiencing. Paul has the faith to say, "Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ." (1 Corinthians 11:1)

We all learn by watching and experiencing. I have a picture frame that Lori got me right after our first daughter was born. It has her baby picture in it, and around her picture are these words, "Daddy, follow after your Heavenly Father's heart, because there's a little heart following after yours..."

And just as that's true in growing up, it's true in growing our faith. We learn by watching and experiencing.

Mentor

<sup>34</sup> Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; he did not say anything to them without using a parable. <sup>35</sup> So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet:

“I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world.”

<sup>36</sup> Then he left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.” (Matthew 13:24-36)

Sometimes Jesus would teach the disciples in private. It’s only the Twelve together when he asks them, “Who do people say I am?” and, “Who do you say I am?” While the disciples learned immensely from hearing Jesus speak to the thousands on the hillside (how could they not?), they got to ask him questions: what did that parable about the weeds really mean? They got to really dig in deep with Jesus in a small group setting.

Deploy

<sup>1</sup>After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. <sup>2</sup> He told them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. <sup>3</sup> Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. (Luke 10:1-3)

Paul asks:

<sup>14</sup> How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? <sup>15</sup> And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!” (Romans 10:14-15)

We make Christ known to others when we interact with them, when our lives say, “Follow me” in the same way Paul said, “Follow my example as I follow the example of Christ.” We are called to be disciples so that we can call others to be disciples. To know Christ and to make Him known to others.

We’ll be talking more and more about discipleship, about what it means to be a follower of Christ. It’s not just studying the Bible and praying (though it is that) or coming to worship (that too!), but living our lives centered on our God and Savior.

In Christ’s Love,
Pastor Bill

Choir Notes

I know that March is the month mixed with contemplation and preparation, mixed with more than a few thoughts of spring, but let’s look ahead to the last day in March, and the last day in Lent – EASTER!

We’ll sing a few of the traditional Easter songs but let’s look at one in particular.

He Lives hymn # 310, words and music written in 1933 by Alfred Ackley (1887 – 1960).

I serve a risen Savior, he’s in the world today,
I know that he is living, whatever foes may say.
I see his hand of mercy, I hear his voice of cheer,
And just the time I need him, he’s always near.

Chorus:

He lives, he lives, Christ Jesus lives today!
He walks with me and talks with me along the narrow way.
He lives, He lives, salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know he lives? He lives within my heart.

In all the world around me I see his loving care,
And though my heart grows weary, I never will despair.
I know that he is leading through all the stormy blast;
The day of his appearing will come at last.

(Chorus)

Rejoice, rejoice O Christian, lift up your voice and sing
Eternal hallelujahs to Jesus Christ the King!
The hope of all who seek him., the help of all who find;
None other is so loving, so good and kind.

(Chorus)

Let's prepare our hearts and voices this month to be able to sing with our Grace congregation on Easter
"You ask me how I know he lives? He Lives within my heart!"

We can look forward to many wonderful worship services including Communion on March 3,
Palm/Passion Sunday on March 24, Maundy Thursday service on March 28, Good Friday service on March 29, and Easter services on March 31, 2024.

Thank you again for keeping your Grace Choir in your prayers. We enjoy being used as a part of one of many ministries here at Grace, regardless of the whether outside! (Remember, you're not too young, too old, nor too late, to join your Grace Choir!)

TRANSITIONS

Welcome to March! It is said that March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. IF ONLY! Unfortunately, that is not often the case in NW PA! But, in spite of the weather, in March our daylight hours seem to be noticeably longer. Birds are beginning to migrate northward and those pesky chipmunks are coming out to play and eat the bird seed.

March is a month that has a history of other types of transitions for my family. We have had births, a wedding and deaths. All of those events caused changes to occur for family and friends. All are remembered for many, many years. And, God was present in all of them. He is there to guide all of us through the transitions we encounter.

In the lives of God's children, there is another transition that needs to occur. That would be learning to love God with all your heart, soul and mind. (Matthew 22:37) Not only is that the greatest commandment, but one of eternal value! To illustrate that, I will share an example of how one boy began that transition. This is from Tozer on the Holy Spirit pg. 57.

I heard through missionaries of a boy overseas who had memorized Jesus' entire Sermon on the Mount. (Matthew 5:3-10) He did it in such record time and with such apparently little effort that someone called him in to find out how he had done it.

"Well", said the boy, "I would memorize a verse and then trust God to help me put it into practice. Then I would memorize the next verse and say, 'Lord, help me to live this one too'..."

From the mouths of babes comes wisdom.

As adults, it seems we can be more focused on reaching an end point rather than what we should gain along the way. Think about the goal of reading the whole Bible in one year! Another scripture that could be used in this manner is I Corinthians 13:4-7.

Regardless of how you change your life to follow Jesus, the desire to change it is Step #1. The staff and leadership of Grace Church are willing to be by your side during transitions.

Warmly, Cindy Price

The month of February is almost behind us and we have already seen a few crocus popping up! We enjoyed our class party and exchanged Valentine's and treats with our friends. It's hard to believe it's less than three months of school before summer break!

Our current afternoon class is registering for kindergarten and are so excited about working on all those skills they will need as they begin public school in the fall. The 3-year-old class is completing their color books and we will be celebrating "rainbow day" with songs, treats and games.

Will March come in like a lion or a lamb? Will the leprechaun visit our classroom and leave us some gold? As we celebrate Dr. Seuss's birthday, keep our eyes open for "visitors", celebrate "official" spring and keep track of the weather, we know the month will fly by!

We have openings for the 2024-2025 school year so if you know of anyone looking for preschool for their child, registration forms are available in the church office or by calling (814) 723-8011 during school hours. The closing of our daycare program has negatively affected our enrollment so we are asking for your help in getting the word out and praying for enough children to continue our preschool program.

You can contact us at Promisepreschool@myyahoo.com or check out our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/GracePromisePreschool. You can also find a registration form by going to the Grace Church website. THANK YOU!

Flock Talk

“They found the stone rolled away from the tomb.”

The stone was rolled away.” These words echo in our hearts as we celebrate Easter. Their meaning signifies that the tomb was empty on Easter morning. Whether we have read the story of resurrection once or a thousand times, we come to realize the truth of that morning. Angels moved the stone, two angels stood guard. One after another, Christ’s followers began to see His glory and understand.

We may have all experienced a time when we truly began to understand. Perhaps it was from reading Proverbs and the words “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom”. The idea of fear in relation to God can jar us. But, when we understand that our fear rests on knowing he evaluates our thoughts, our words and our actions, then we truly experience a wake-up call.

My reason for starting this article along these lines is because many people experience that particular jolt or awakening at Easter time. There is a searching and a need that takes place and people are drawn to a church for some sort of reassurance. As we look around this month and see new attendees and wonder what prompted them to choose Grace Church, what we really want to think is “how do I help them?” Maybe it’s simply our friendliness. Maybe it’s an invitation to a Bible study. Maybe it means handing it to God and letting him lead you.

As we encounter people in all walks of life this month, someone will be searching. Someone is going to see Christ’s love in the way you treat them. Someone’s eyes will be opened and you may just be the testimony they will look back on as the defining moment of understanding why the stone was rolled away.

Lovingly,
Sue Toombs, Lay Leader

The Agape Class will begin a new study on March 3.

Here is some background on this study. It is titled Colossians and Philemon by Martha Reapsome. Paul wrote these letters to the church in Colossae and Philemon who was the host for the house church in Colossae. Paul was concerned that they were being urged by false teachers to add rules, practices, and philosophies to their Christian faith.

Some of you may already have a copy of this book and started the study several years ago just as the lockdown was announced. We plan to start at the beginning of the study and finish this time. If you still have your book, dig it out and join us. If you have no book but want to study these books of the Bible, let Lois Strycula or Meghan Brooker in the church office know. Copies will be supplied to all who need them.

For Lois: 814-728-8675 or lois.strycula@gmail.com

For Meghan: 814-723-9440 or meghan@graceumcwarren.com

Please join us on Sunday mornings at 9:30 am in Winger Parlor.
